ELECTRICIAN A

The most-named business, in 9 of 10 answers.

We asked ChatGPT two questions a customer in Springwood would ask, 5 times each, in fresh logged-out sessions. Each dot is one answer.

● NAMED ○ NOT NAMED

Every answer that doesn't name you names someone else.

45%

of US consumers used AI tools for local business recommendations in the past year, up from 6%.

HOW THE CHECK WORKS

1Set the basics

Your industry, your main service and your area. They stay the same for every question.

2Ask like a customer

Short, plain questions your customers would actually type. None of them name a business.

3Ask five times

Each in a fresh, logged-out session, with the location set to your area.

4Count who's named

Who comes up, how often, and how they're described. Raw answers are kept.

Why five times?

ChatGPT gives a different answer each time you ask. One answer could be luck. Five shows you the pattern.

What it doesn't show

It shows who ChatGPT names. It doesn't show who customers choose or how many calls anyone gets. It's a snapshot, not a guarantee.
